

Subscribe

Waterfront Dining in Boston

Necce Regis

Share

Morgan Ione Yeager

Boston's once-ignored waterfront is getting a high-tech makeover. Dubbed "The Innovation District," the city's project to transform 1,000 acres into an active urban environment aims to foster creative ways of thinking. As ultramodern buildings and businesses sprout up, restaurants with top-notch chefs are flocking to craft their own new culinary visions. Here are four not-to-miss spots.

Row 34

The folks from Island Creek Oyster Bar serve up a selection of salty-sweet bivalves along with a dazzling seafood-centric menu in an industrial setting. The beer list doesn't disappoint either.

www.row34.com

Sam's

This casual-chic bistro offers seasonally inspired tasty bites, salads and main dishes. Dine inside or alfresco with panoramic harbor views.

www.samsatlouis.com

Tavern Road

Enjoy modern and whimsical New England cuisine — Maine mussels in mulled cider, anyone? — and killer cocktails at this cavernous hot spot decorated with a 30-foot street-art-style mural.

www.tavernroad.com

M.C. Spiedo

Chefs Clark Frasier and Mark Gaier's menu celebrates the rustic cooking and Old World flavors of Renaissance Italy. Dishes such as Leonardo's Notebook Salad (named for Da Vinci) are crafted with farm-fresh ingredients.

www.mcspiedoboston.com

Recommend Share

Sort by Best

Join the discussion...

Sharon • 2 days ago

Thanks for the recs - sound very inviting. Just have to get to Boston to try out!

Sharon

Reply Share

Feedback

Sign In

See All Issue Content

ALSO ON AMERICAN AIRLINES PUBLISHING

WHAT'S THIS?

Fannie Lou Hamer | Mississippi | Ruleville | Emmett Till :: ...

1 comment • 4 months ago

Avatar ruthseeker2436577@yahoo.com — Bless Fannie Lou Hamer's memory.

Consolidated Credit Counseling Service | Tracy Staton | ...

1 comment • 3 months ago

Avatar GeraldVonberger — These are some excellent tips for managing your debts after the holiday ...

Great | American | Indie | Bookstore :: American Way ...

1 comment • a month ago

Avatar Pig Farmer Bill — Books are a window to the world.

American | Idol | Adam | Lambert | Queen

11 comments • 2 months ago

Avatar Marian painter — Adam is perfect for Queen and their difficult music. Have loved Adam for five years ...

Subscribe Add Disqus to your site Privacy

- Home
- Travel
- Lifestyle
- Entertainment
- Business
- Technology
- Past Issues
- Contact Us
- Advertise
- Join Our Email List
- Media Pack
- Share Your Feedback

