Early summer specials include stay-at-home restaurants and shops. Spring and summer deals bloom at Lopstick Lodge in Pittsburg, and a new foodie destination in Berlin, smoked grouse crostini and desserts, including curried maple pecan pie. Includes recipes for breakfast, appetizers, entrees, and desserts.

Each entry includes a spectacular photograph of the dish or the venue, to give a real taste of the region. For those who are interested in the stories behind the dishes, we provide links to websites for additional information. We also include tips for touring here and abroad, with information on the best places to stay, eat, and shop.

There are a variety of ways to enjoy these deals, including weekend getaways, long weekend vacations, and even longer stays. Some deals are available online, while others require a phone call or visit. In some cases, you may be able to book directly through the restaurant or hotel, or through a travel agency.

Overall, this guide provides a wealth of information for those looking to discover new flavors and new dining experiences. Whether you are a foodie or a food lover, you are sure to find something that will satisfy your cravings and your budget.

Happy dining!