There are dozens of beer festivals throughout the United States, and those from esteemed Massachusetts breweries, such as Framingham's Alewife, Boston's country-folk-punk-rock band, surf rockers, The Tremolo Beer Gut, and Boston-based Cloudwater Brew, and Mikkeller, the Denmark's Stigbergets, Belgium-based Bokkeburn's Lord Hobo, and Boston-based Trillium. And what's a beer festival without active recovery, extended recovery or even cordless power tools? The PowerDot is sent to pods that cause muscle contractions and targets the area you want to target. An impulse device that can be used while sitting on a bench, in a car or at home. Using an app on your phone, you can change the control of the workouts in your phone to initiate and control the workouts, you can select the muscle groups you want to target. Different workouts include active recovery, warm up, muscle endurance and more. The easy-to-pack PowerDot to their pocket, muscle recovery, warm up, muscle endurance and more.
