One of the most Instagrammed museums in the world is the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City, which took first place in the global category this past year, according to Instagram's data team.

The app recently released its year-in-review data, which includes the most Instagrammed museums in the world. The Louvre Museum in Paris was the most Instagrammed museum (global) of 2017, followed by the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, and the Museum of Modern Art, both in New York.

The top hashtags of 2017 included #Beautiful, #Art, #Photography, #Travel, #ArtLovers, #Instagram, #Traveler, #TravelBlogger, and #Wanderlust.

The Washington Post travel section included a list of the top museums of 2017, as well as tips for touring here and abroad. The Concordie, a 44-room hotel located in the former Newmark's Department Store building on the city's Essex Street pedestrian mall, offered a combination of modern furniture and funky details from the 1950s and 1960s, while the Hotel Salem, the newest of Salem's Witch-related homes and museums — for the first time, probably because of Yayoi Kusama's wildly popular ‘Infinity Mirrored Room — The Souls of Millions of Light Years Away’. The museum, which opened in 2017, showcased its Instagram account, according to the museum. Here are a few of the sites' top lists:
